"Maytime" At Tower Saturday

"Maytime" co-starring Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy begins Saturday at the Tower theatre in Compton. In the supporting cast of "Maytime" John Barrymore plays a picturesque role as the temperamental impresario, his first since "Romeo and Juliet" which was one of the sensational pictures of 1936. Also on the same program, Claire Trevor and Michael Whalen in "Time Out for Romance" comedy-romance of the automobile caravans.

Co-eds Far Outnumbered BERKELEY, Cal. (U.P.)—Matrimonial possibilities, at least from the male standpoint, are at a low ebb on the campus of the University of California this year. Men outnumber girl students almost two to one, there being 9,575 male students and 5,859 women.

CO-WORKERS ARE CO-STARS

Co-workers, Margaret Lindsey and Errol Flynn found themselves separated, rather than drawn together by their profession, in "Green Light," romantic drama which opens tonight at the Torrance theatre.

PLUNGE FOR GARDENA SCHOOL UP TO BOARD

Whether Gardena high school pupils shall have their own swimming pool awaits action by Los Angeles school officials, with the matter under consideration by Superintendent Vierling Kersey. The swimming pool proposal was submitted by the Gardena city recreation commission.

COOLIDGE NAME FOR SCHOOL RETAINED

The Los Angeles board of education this week refused to change the name selected for the new Tujunga district high school, stating that "considerable care and thought had been given in selecting the name of 'Calvin Coolidge'." Residents of the area asked that the new high school name be changed to "Verdugo Hills high school."

PAT O'BRIEN HAS TITLE ROLE

That ever-popular Irish film star, Pat O'Brien has the title role in "The Great O'Malley," a melodrama of life in New York's colorful East Side which opens at the Torrance theatre Sunday. Pat's a policeman this time. He's Officer O'Malley, a tough, hardboiled copper who cannot see beyond his rulebook until a little crippled girl and a lovely school teacher humanize him. By the time the final fadeout ends the story he's a regular fellow, just as Pat always is, in films indeed, in real life. Sharing stellar honors with him, Humphrey Bogart, who scored so greatly as the killer in "The Petrified Forest," again runs amuck the law.

Ann Sheridan, another recent discovery of the studio, who was a high school girl in Dallas, Texas, only a year ago, plays the school teacher. Fortune has been good to Ann. This is only her second picture, yet already she is a leading lady—at 21!

The little crippled child is played by Sybil Jason, the 7-year-old South African child actress who captivated movie audiences in "The Little Big Shot" and "The Singing Kid."

"White Hunter" Furious Drama

A man and a woman trying to hate a high school girl in Dallas, Texas, only a year ago, plays the school teacher. Fortune has been good to Ann. This is only her second picture, yet already she is a leading lady—at 21!

Warner Baxter and June Lang, who created such a sensation in "The Road to Glory" are brilliantly cast in a drama even stranger, a romance over greater, the most stirring adventure a man and woman ever shared.

Baxter is seen as a colorful hunter who accepts a commission to guide a big game expedition through a strangely wild country. Included in the party are Wilfred Lawson, a powerful munitions magnate, Gail Patrick, his wayward wife, and lovely June Lang, his daughter by a former marriage. Alison Skipworth a shrewish hypochondriac and George Hassell her hen-pecked spouse.

THEY CAPTURE ALL HEARTS

IN OUTDOOR GIRL CONTEST

Miss Mary Rose Case, attractive 16-year-old San Bernardino County high school girl, who is the first entrant in the outdoor girl contest held in connection with California Rodeo, July 15-18, at Salinas, Cal.

Errol Flynn In "Green Light" Is Coming Sunday to Plaza

"Green Light," best-selling novel for two years, and now translated to the screen as a Cosmopolitan production, has been booked by the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne for three days beginning Sunday.

Errol Flynn, the young Irish star who made such a sensational success with his first starring role, "Captain Blood," and followed it with another smash hit in "The Charge of the Light Brigade," has the role of Dr. Newell Paige, a young surgeon who sacrifices his career to save that of an older doctor.

Costarred with him is the lovely Anita Louise as Phyllis Dexter, for whose mother's death Paige has assumed the blame. The two met at the home of Francis Ogilvie (played by Margaret Lindsay), a nurse who devotes her life to Paige, and fall instantly in love. But when Phyllis finds out who he is she refuses to see him again. Dean Harcourt (played by Sir Cedric Hardwicke) is a cleric with a broad and beautiful philosophy of life, and the confidante of these three young people. Through him, Phyllis is made to realize that Paige is innocent and she finally goes to him in the Rocky Mountains, where he is risking his life in the search for a vaccine that will control the dreaded spotted fever.

Lavishly produced under the direction of Frank Borzage, the screen play written by Milton Krims from the novel by Lloyd C. Douglas, "Green Light" bids fair to be one of the leading screen contributions of 1937.

Alaska Teachers' Pay Listed SEWARD, Alaska (U.P.)—A survey of salaries paid Alaska teachers showed the average for high school teachers was $1,662.86 and primary teachers, $1,542.89.

Lomita Students Win Art Awards

Narbonne high school art students distinguished themselves by winning first and second place awards at the hobby show sponsored by the Los Angeles Junior Museum and held in Exposition Park.

First honors were taken by Helen Schultz who entered five dress designs and one water color painting. Kenneth Eade and Philip MacHale won second prize for their work on the frontispiece of the 1937 yearbook. The hobby exhibit will continue until May 10.

Coach's Control Good KENT, O. (U.P.)—Ray Novotny, Kent State University basketball coach won a bet by throwing a football through a regulation gym ring from a distance of 15 yards.
